Practically every taxpayer's organization and board of trade in Brooklyn was represented at a mass meeting held last night to work for a uniform 80-cent gas rate, as strongly urged by The Evening World. The meeting was at the Paveett Club, No. 1765 Seventy-ninth Street, Bath Beach, under the auspices of the New Utrecht League of Improvement Associations.

John Paveett, President of the league, presided.

Unanimous resolutions were offered commending The Evening World for its efforts in behalf of the consumers. Ex-Senator Duhamel, one of the speakers, who has for years fought for the 80-cent gas rate, also paid tribute to this newspaper.

A committee was appointed to present the resolutions of the meeting next Tuesday to Public Service Commissioner Hayward, who is hearing the Kings County gas case. On the committee are J. R. Paveett, M. C. Smith, J. A. Gordon, Senator Duhamel, Assemblyman Green, Messrs. Halsey, Marquand, Hoega, Baron, Seifert, Hawley, Liscari, Pollack and a delegation from Borough Park Civic Heights Association.

These members represent the following organizations of the Thirtieth and Thirty-first Wards: Left Bank Park Improvement Association, Borough Park Civic Heights, Bath Beach Taxpayers' Association, Oakcrest Association, Bath Beach and Bensonhurst Board of Trade, New Utrecht Improvement Association and South Side Board of Trade.

The Art of Beauty

Every woman owes it to herself to be as beautiful as she can. Nature intended all women should be beautiful. Now if you can improve your looks, how can you be doing so. If you are already beautiful, how can you retain it.

Medicated Vaseline is Nature's greatest beauty aid. It is a cold cream, cleanser and builder all in one. Vaseline is a mixture of various vegetable oils, stimulating and building in their action on the skin and tissues immediately underlying. Under this beauty treatment the skin becomes clear and full of bloom and takes an appearance of firmness and health. The bust may be developed and the form rounded and filled out to say the least by continued massage with Medicated Vaseline.

This may be bought at any well-stocked drug store, and after trying it, if you are not satisfied with results, you may have your money refunded—Advt.

DINER WOULDN'T EAT CHICKEN; ARRESTED; JUDGE LET HIM GO

Night Court Magistrate Refused to Fine Martin Hall for Rejecting Order.

Martin W. Hall, a civil engineer of No. 374 Wadsworth Avenue and his wife dined last evening at Healy's, One Hundred and Forty-fifth Street and Broadway. In their order was chicken. Mr. Hall called the waiter, Albert E. Prior, and said:

"You will have to take this chicken away. It is absolutely unfit to eat. I can't pay for it."

The waiter insisted the chicken was perfect and refused to remove it. Patrick Healy, the proprietor, also said the chicken was good. Mr. Hall declined to pay for it, but offered to pay the balance of his bill, $2.50.

On Prior's complaint, Policeman Ornstein took Mr. and Mrs. Hall to the West One Hundred and Fifty-second Street station. The lieutenant rejected a complaint against Mrs. Hall. When Hall was arraigned in Night Court before Magistrate House, he was represented by George Titus, former police inspector, a lawyer at No. 115 Broadway. Mrs. Hall testified:

"The chicken wasn't fit to eat and I was abused because I dared say so. Mr. Healy said I didn't know what a good chicken was."

"Discharged," said Magistrate House. Mr. Hall, who is said to be in independent circumstances, has instructed his attorney to carry the case to the Civil Court.

"Clothes from Maker to Wearer"

A CLOTHING SALE

Held by a Manufacturer

FOR TWO MONTHS we've been preparing for a sale to our wholesale customers—planning, buying, styling and making.

We got the idea late in March when we had an opportunity to buy some imported wools at a price—and since then we've made almost a dozen special purchases of wools for this sale.

ORIGINALLY this was not intended for a retail sale at all. We've been speeding up our factory, accumulating this tremendous stock—to sell our wholesale customers for their sale events. Many of them are coming in next week to purchase these clothes for big sales in June. But before they see the clothes, we've decided to let our New York customers make their choice. We've moved this stock into our retail store—and are offering it to you at the same prices our wholesale customers will pay for what remains.

3,729 Suits in $20 and $25 Grades, $12.50
4,360 Suits in $27.50 and $30 Grades, $16.50

—that, we sincerely believe, are the most exceptional clothing values offered in New York in recent years. We know that we have never had anything equal to them in our store.

AND the styles—well, they're up to our usual standard. We'll guarantee this—there isn't a single model in any of Fifth Avenue's or Broadway's expensive clothing stores that you won't find duplicated here. Workmanship, too, is as good as always—and our guarantee of complete satisfaction or your money back is in full force. Many are quarter, half and full silk-lined.

Special--(319) Suits $19.50

This is a wonderfully exceptional lot of suits, made up from one special purchase of wools we bought at a price that was just as exceptional. It was our best buy this season, and we're passing all our saving right along to you. The result is a value that will amaze you.

Remember—you're getting good clothes at wholesale prices—that the ordinary retailer cannot buy such clothes as these any lower than you can—that before he sells them to you he has to add his profits and expenses. Remember that rents are low in Walker Street, and our saving in expense comes out of the price. Remember that there are so many suits you're assured of a wide choice of every conceivable pattern, fabric and model, and that we'll have extra salesmen to take care of you.

Remember all this—then think a minute. Aren't such clothes worth seeing?
